

Carer Stories and Poems - Terms and Conditions

The organisers, Crossroads Together reserve the right to modify these terms and conditions without notice.

Carers Stories Entry:

By entering Carers Stories, you agree to the provisions of these Terms and Conditions and to comply fully with them.

Carers Stories is only open to unpaid carers resident in England. It is free to enter. You may submit multiple entries up to a maximum of five per person.

If you are under the age of 18 you must have permission to enter Carers Stories from your parent or guardian. By submitting an entry, your parent/carer/guardian is deemed to have given such consent and to agree to the use of the entry as described in these terms and conditions.

The organisers cannot be held responsible for emails that do not arrive due to the entrant's email security settings or restrictions placed by their Internet service provider.

All stories and poems must be entered via the form on the webpage:

<https://www.crossroadstogether.org.uk/carers-stories-and-poems/>

Copyright and Reproduction

You must be the sole author and owner of the copyright for entries. You will retain copyright of your entries at all times and always be credited alongside your story / poem.

Usage Rights

By entering your stories /poems, you grant permission to Crossroads Together exclusive license to reproduce them for the following purposes;

- Printing of stories / poems in local media if we create a press release. We ask that the press credit authors where the stories / poems are used but cannot be held responsible for errors and omissions
- Inclusion of entries on the Crossroads Together website to promote services
- Inclusion in advertising materials to promote Crossroads Together carer services
- Crossroads Together related social media accounts to share stories / poems and promote services thereafter. Authors will be credited alongside their work. Crossroads Together is running the project and the social media platforms used are in no way responsible for or affiliated with it

Data Protection

The information you provide will be collected and stored by Crossroads Together and processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. We will only use your information for the purposes of administration of the Competition (including publishing your name and county) and any other purposes to which you have consented. We will not pass your details on to any third party.

Indemnity and Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Crossroads Together excludes its liability for any loss, damage, injury, cost or expense suffered by you, whether directly or indirectly and howsoever caused, in connection with the Carers Stories. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall exclude Crossroads Together liability for death or personal injury arising from Crossroads Together own negligence or any other liability that cannot, as a matter of law, be excluded.

You agree to indemnify Crossroads Together and keep Crossroads Together indemnified against any loss, damage, injury, cost or expense suffered by Crossroads Together as a result of your entry in the Competition, including (but not limited to) any claim of infringement of intellectual property rights made by any third party.

General

You agree that if you enter, you will take part in and cooperate fully with reasonable publicity and to the use of your name and story/poem in such publicity.

Crossroads Together reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time through the Crossroads Together website without giving notice.

If you would like to remove your entry then you can do so by emailing help@crossroadstogether.org.uk

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed and construed in accordance with English Law and will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.